Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Wednesday 26 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Chilly tonight, patchy fog. Thursday, sunnier and warmer for many.

This Evening and Tonight:
Evening showers in the eastern and northern areas dying out and remaining cloudy, many other areas dry. Clear spells in southern and western areas leading to a chilly night with possible grass frost and some patchy fog in rural areas.

Thursday:
Most areas dry with sunny spells, early cloud in the east and north breaking although perhaps a stray light shower here. Cloud thickening across Northern Ireland, perhaps some rain later.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain in western areas on Friday. Otherwise, largely dry with increasing amounts of sunshine and turning warmer for most. Cooler along the east coast.
